

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
300 Williamsboro St

Oxford, N. C. 27565

Dear Property Owner:

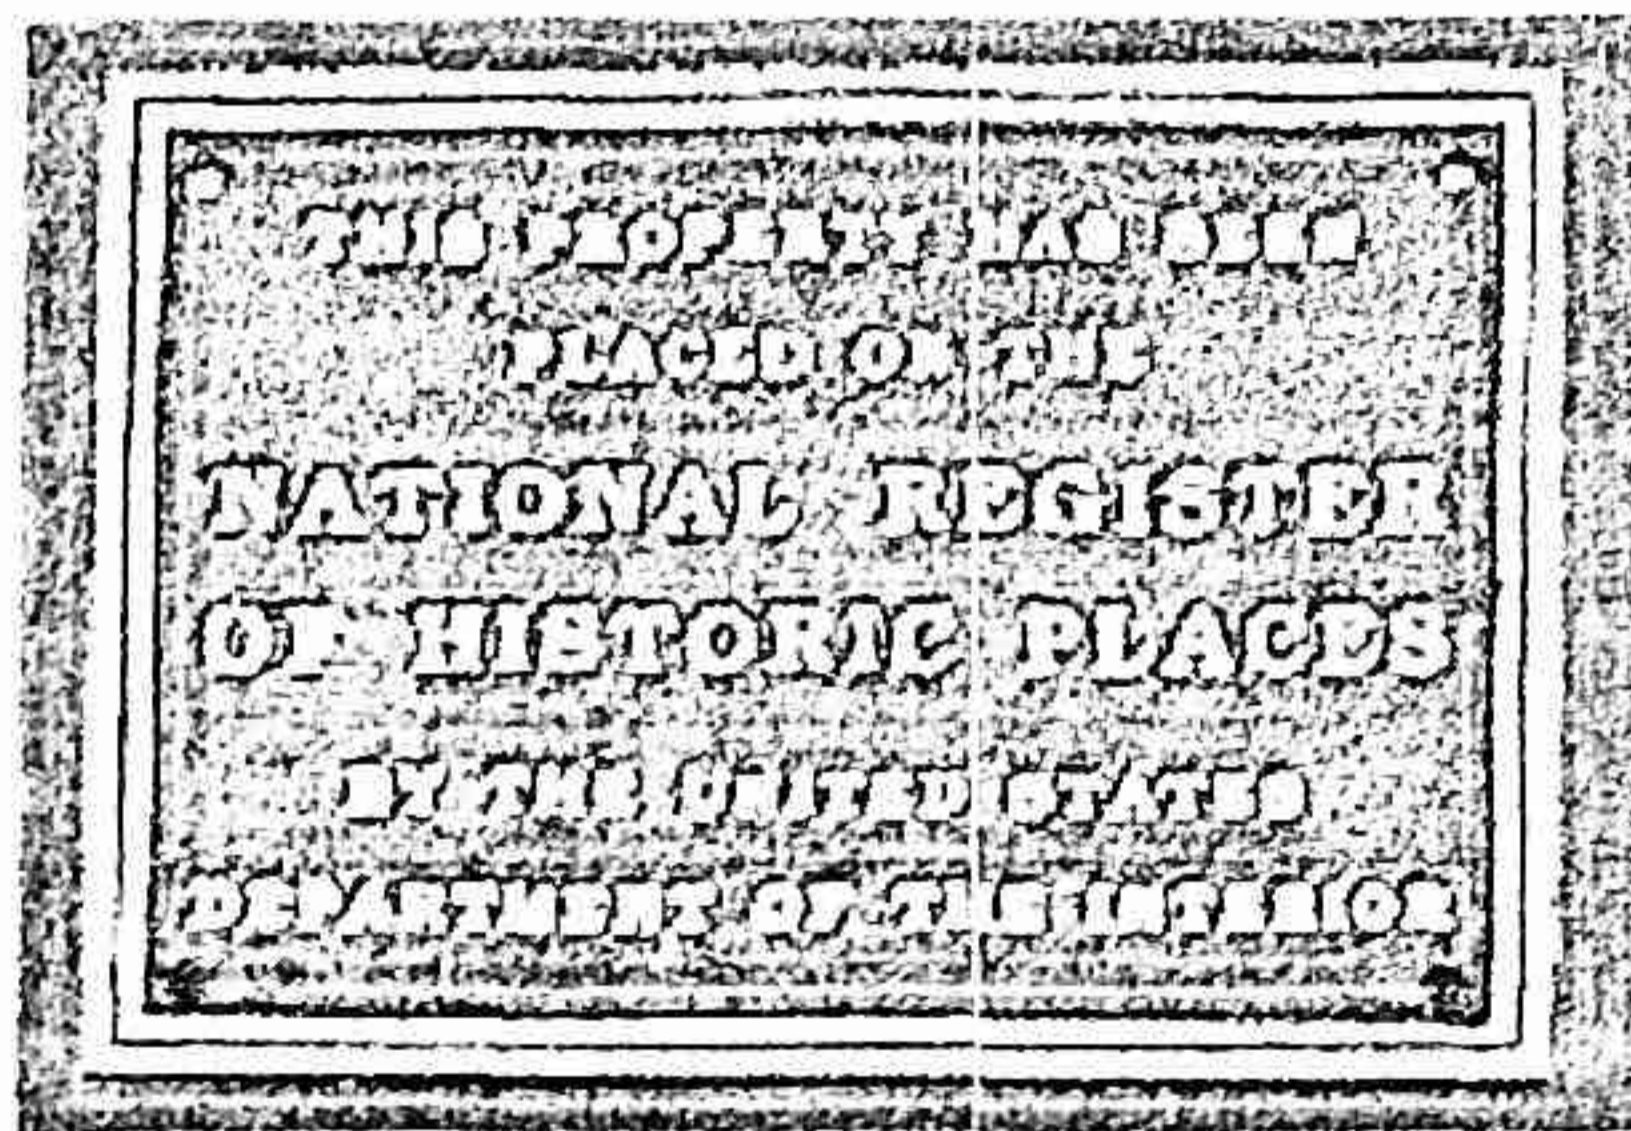

In 1988 the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources issued to the City of Oxford a certificate of entry in the National Register of Historic Places, a federal designation, based on an extensive survey commissioned by the Oxford City Board of Commissioners. At that time there were approximately 205 structures that were determined to be contributing structures within a delineated area in the City of Oxford. Your property is part of that designation.

The Oxford Historic Preservation Commission wishes to offer an organized plaque program that will promote consistency of information markers within the College Street and Main Street Historic Districts to be placed on the front of your residence. The Commission's desire is that these plaques will help not only to educate visitors and residents but to further promote preservation and rehabilitation.

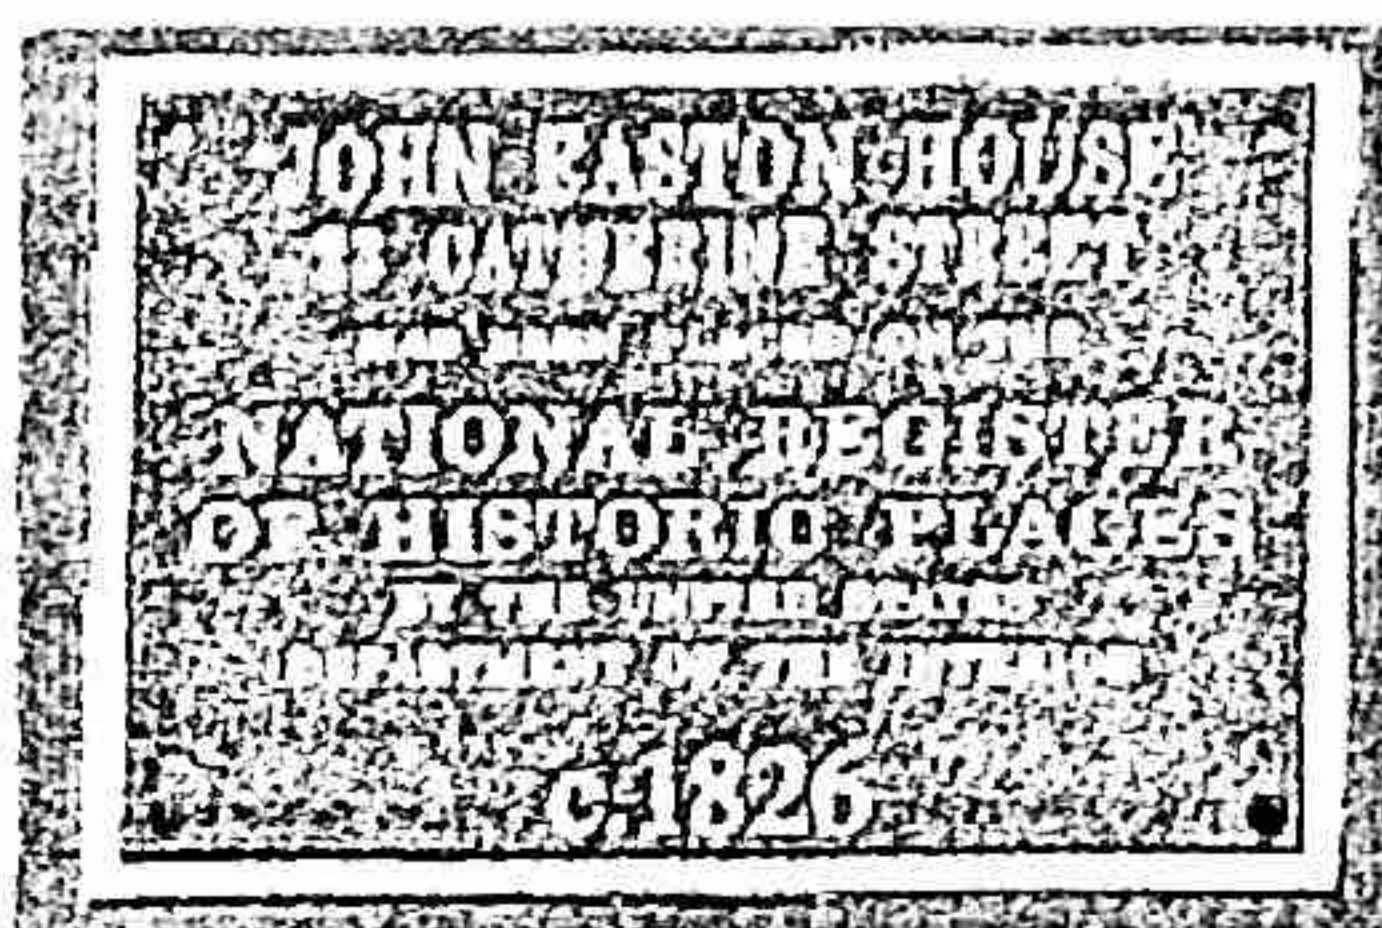

As an owner of a contributing home in the above districts, The Oxford Historic Preservation Commission is offering you the opportunity to purchase a National Register bronze plaque to be placed on your home. The following two options are available:

Option One: $83.00 plus $23.00 shipping = $106.00
